

THE CROATIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES AND ARTS
The Department of Biomedical Sciences in Rijeka

UNIVERSITY OF RIJEKA
Department of Biotechnology
Faculty of Medicine
Faculty of Law

JEAN MONNET INTER - UNIVERSITY CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE OPATIJA

and

KVARNER HEALTH TOURISM CLUSTER

organise the scientific colloquium

“Public-private partnership and personalised medicine”

Rijeka, June 2, 2017

University Campus Rijeka, University Departments,
Lecture hall O-030, Radmile Matejčić 2, 51 000 Rijeka

***

10:00 Welcome speeches

Professor Nada Bodiřoga-Vukobrat, PhD, Jean Monnet Inter-university Centre of Excellence, Opatija; Faculty of Law University of Rijeka

Professor Daniel Rukavina, M.D., PhD, fellow of the Croatian Academy of Science and Arts, The Department of Clinical and Transplantation Immunology and Molecular Medicine in Rijeka

Dr Vladimir Mozetić, Kvarner Health Tourism Cluster

Professor Snježana Prijić Samaržija, M.D., PhD, Rector of the University of Rijeka, Rijeka, Croatia

***

10:30 Anton Ussi, EATRIS - European infrastructure for translational medicine, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

11:15 Professor Krešimir Pavelić, M.D., PhD, Laboratory for High-throughput Analytics, Head; Center for High-throughput Technologies, Department of Biotechnology University of Rijeka

11:45 Professor Dionis Jurić, Legal framework for public-private partnerships

12:15 Representative of innovative industry (tbc)

12:45 Coffee Break

13:15 Professor Saša Drezgić, Economic implications of public-private partnership and personalised medicine

Questions and answers

The scientific colloquium is supported by the Croatian Science Foundation project No. 5709 “Perspectives of maintaining the social state: towards the transformation of social security systems for individuals in personalized medicine”, and the University of Rijeka project No. 13.08.1.2.03 “Social security and market competition”.

